

How Managers Can Boost Engagement AND Productivity in Today's Employee

Join us for a morning with David Lee, founder of HumanNature@Work. David is an author and world-renowned authority on organizational and managerial practices. He will be discussing various ways to improve performance, engagement and satisfaction among employees. Presidents, CEOs and Executive Directors who attend are entitled to an additional follow up webinar from David.

David Lee, Principal,
HumanNature@Work

Testimonials

"It's an educational privilege and pleasure to learn from David Lee! When he's presenting to audiences large and small his insights about workplace dynamics, leadership, and striving for our personal best resonate with everyone." - Lisa Drew McIlwain, MaineHealth, Portland, ME

"The value David provided our organization went far beyond the actual classroom experience. In addition to the wealth of information he provided during class, David provided a broad support system to further the development of our senior management team." - Eric Henry, CEO and CIO at Hershey Trust Company

Everything is Possible.

Register at www.ohimaine.org or contact Jonathan Allen at OHI Professional Development.

PHONE: 207.605.1221

EMAIL: jallen@ohimaine.org

SEMINAR DATE

September 21, 2017 9am - 12pm

Jeff's Catering, Brewer

$69

10% group discount available

In this seminar we will explore what today's employee is looking for so managers can do their part to:

- ⇒ Boost engagement levels
- ⇒ Improve productivity while maintaining high morale
- ⇒ Keep morale up in difficult times
- ⇒ Help their employer become an Employer of Choice and attract A-List Talent

OHI Professional Development

Learning Experiences Which Inspire
People to Make a Difference